RAIDS ST GURELLAS.

There were rumous of raids by generillas at.

Hannasa on Friday, and troops were sent forward in consequence. The disadvantages of the present time of march on Richmond may be seen from the fact that it takes an immense force to protect the fine of railroad from Alexandria to Brandy Station—it is said one whole corps. It requires a strong escent to protect a party traveling from this city to Pairian Court House, which is but a few miles. The manufacts every far times, make dashes almost up to the fordiscations at Alexandria. Nearly every farmer in the region of country bei weam here and Richmond appears to be a guerilla. — At. The Mostry and other rebed cavalry sho make frequent incursions through the gaps in the mountain range, retreating again with whatever booty, in the shape to main, horses or provisions, they can scourse. They plet up a good many struggling soldiens of our trany in this way, and occasionally surprise our pickop parties.

Troops are passing through here for the army almost daily. The First Michigan cavalry, a very fine regiment, better mounted than any I have seen in a long time, passed
